Jet Blast Kills 43

Hits Grader During Takeoff

ROME (AP)—A four-jet airliner carrying 72 persons exploded in flames today after colliding with a road grader and about 43 of those aboard were reported killed.

The plane, a Trans World Airlines Boeing 707, was gathering speed for a takeoff at Fiumicino Airport, but suddenly wobbled, hit the road grader and exploded.

Of the 72 persons aboard — 55 passengers and a double crew totaling 17 — at least 20 survived. Most suffered grave injuries and were rushed to hospitals. Among the passengers were reported to be 26 TWA employees and families.

Among the survivors was the pilot, identified as Capt. Vernon Lowell, Glen Head, N.Y.

The flight, TWA 800, originated in Kansas City, Mo., and stopped in Chicago, New York, Paris and Milan before reaching Rome. It was headed from Rome to Athens and Cairo.

Accounts of mechanics and other workers at the scene said the crash occurred this way:

The plane was speeding down the runway when flames erupted from one of the wheel assemblies.

The plane started to wobble as the captain applied the brakes. By this time the plane had passed the end of the runway and crossed on into a cross-runway under repair.

The plane's right outside motor knocked over a parked road grader. As the plane skidded to a halt, doors opened and passengers began jumping out.

There was an explosion, the plane burst into flames. Then other explosions shattered the wreckage.

Brought to hospitals were a Martin Chappler, Ernest Havell Jones, an American serviceman from Louisiana, and two Ethiopian citizens, Didane Kenu, 23, and Tespaye Tette, 24. They were only slightly injured.

Witnesses said fuel poured from one of the plane's tanks after it hit the grader. The fuel ignited, they said, and the plane exploded 200 yards further along.

There were conflicting reports on the time the explosion occurred.

While some persons said the blast occurred just as the plane lifted off the ground, others said it exploded while on an approach strip just before reaching the runway to begin its takeoff.

Caution On Change In House

Numerous Changes In Rules Proposed To Halt Runaway

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some top-level Democrats are counseling colleagues to proceed with caution in considering major changes in the House rules when the new Congress meets in January.

They are apprehensive that the House, with Democrats outnumbering Republicans 295 to 140, may become "a runaway house" and pass legislation neither sponsored nor desired by the administration.

Numerous changes in the rules have been proposed, mainly by spokesmen for Democratic liberal groups, and all are aimed at expediting President Johnson's legislative program. But their application would not be limited to Johnson bills.

Officially, House leaders have not expressed publicly their feeling about the proposed changes. In private conversations they have voiced some misgivings.

As a result, there may be only a few relatively minor changes approved by the Democratic caucus preceding the opening of the House on Jan. 4. More far-reaching alterations could be made later in the session if the need arose. A majority vote of the House can change the rules at any time.

Most of the proposed changes would weaken the grip of the Rules Committee on bills approved by other committees having jurisdiction over legislation. The Rules Committee has no legislative jurisdiction. It serves as a legislative clearing house.

Most legislative measures cannot reach the House floor for a vote unless the Rules Committee approves. There are ways under existing rules to bypass the committee, but they seldom are effective and the committee can delay House action indefinitely if a majority of its members want to.

New Image In Reforms By Catholics

NEW YORK (AP) — A layman in a dark business suit stood facing the Roman Catholic congregation, and read from the Scriptures, "Brethren ... may you walk worthily ... growing in the knowledge of God."

The setting was an image of things to come next Sunday in Catholic parishes throughout the country — a new mode of active communal worship with about half of the Mass being said in English.

In the forerunner here, the people rose after reading of the Epistle and in unison intoned a psalm in English instead of the priest alone doing it in Latin.

"Out of the depths I cry to you, Lord. O Lord, hearken to my voice! Alleluia."

Then following more Scripture came another unfamiliar experience — hymn singing. "Now thank we all our God with hearts and hands and voices ..."

The service, at Manhattan's Corpus Christi Church Sunday foretold some of the sweeping changes to be inaugurated a week hence in the nation's approximately 17,500 Roman Catholic parishes.

Bridge Sightseers Cause Traffic Jam

NEW YORK (AP) — The spanking-new Verrazano-Narrows Bridge spanning the entrance to New York Harbor climaxed the first 24 hours of its life with a monumental traffic jam.

Police reported that so many sightseers had flocked to the structure Sunday they caused a four-hour traffic jam, with cars backed up for miles on both approaches.

Traffic officials said about 100,000 cars had crossed the span in the first 24 hours.

Hope For Settlement

Rail Strike Off For Another Week

CHICAGO (AP) — Postponement of a nationwide strike scheduled for 6 a.m. today will allow rail traffic to move as usual this Thanksgiving week, but negotiations between the railroads and three unions will resume next week in Washington.

The three non-operating shop craft unions put off the threatened strike for at least a week Sunday after receiving an urgent request by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz.

Later Sunday, J. E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the railroads, telephoned Judge Joseph Sam Perry of U.S. District Court that the carriers are dropping an injunction petition which sought an order barring the strike.

Both sides accepted Wirtz's suggestion to resume talks in Washington Nov. 30.

The unions, representing 49,000 employees, are the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, the Sheet Metal Workers' International Association and the International Association of Machinists.

A union spokesman said Wirtz was advised in response to his request for a postponement "that for the first time there is some hope of settlement of our dispute."

Three other shop craft unions signed three-year contracts Saturday, bringing to eight the number of non-operating unions which have negotiated wage and fringe-benefit agreements in the past few days.

Terms of the contracts, which closely followed the recommendations of a presidential emergency board, provide more than 367,000 workers of the eight unions with a 27-cent-per-hour wage increase over three years plus improved fringe benefits.

The average pay of workers covered by the eight unions ranges between $2.58 and $2.63 per hour.

For Dr. Carlson

Execution Stay Ends Today

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Rebel leader Christophe Gbenye has stayed the execution of American medical missionary Dr. Paul Carlson again but he says the stay will end today.

Central government troops led by white mercenaries resumed their advance on rebel Stanleyville. They captured the town of Lubutu, about 120 miles southeast of the rebel capital.

In a Stanleyville radio broadcast heard in the Central African Republic, Gbenye added: "We expect results of the first negotiations before 24 hours." Gbenye was speaking of talks in Kenya on the fate of Dr. Carlson and about 1,000 white hostages held by his forces.

A good road links Lubutu with Stanleyville, and the attack force expected to encounter little opposition.

"Under normal circumstances you can reach Stanleyville from Lubutu in four or five hours driving," a military source in Leopoldville said.

Observers predicted Stanleyville would fall this week unless the commando units run into unexpected resistance.

Rebel Foreign Minister Thomas Kanza arrived in Nairobi Sunday for talks with Kenya Prime Minister Jomo Kenyatta on the fate of 1,000 white hostages in rebel territory. They include 60 Americans and more than 600 Belgians.

Kenyatta told newsmen after Sunday's talks that Kanza told him: "All foreign civilian prisoners of war are safe."

The rebel broadcast said: "Kenyatta has asked that the execution of Major Paul Carlson be stayed in order to permit negotiations, and out of respect for Africa we agreed."

The rebels have charged that Carlson is a U.S. major captured in combat. The 36-year-old missionary from Rolling Hills, Calif., was sentenced to die last Monday on spy charges, but rebel leader Christophe Gbenye postponed execution for one week pending negotiations.

Gbenye said in a broadcast Sunday that he was willing to continue negotiations. This seemed to indicate that he might again defer Carlson's execution.

The United States has denied that Carlson is a military man or an agent. It joined Belgium over the weekend in asking U.N. members to press the rebels to free all foreigners.

Hostages Released Unharmed

WALLA WALLA, Wash. (AP) — A band of escaped convicts held a Walla Walla couple hostage at knife point for several hours early today as they fled into Oregon in the couple's car.

The hostages were released later unharmed.

The seven prisoners, including three murderers, escaped from the Washington State Penitentiary through a 40-foot tunnel Sunday night.

Warden Bob Rhay said Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jeppe of Walla Walla were kidnapped by the convicts near the Jeppe home as the couple was returning from church.

Jeppe told Rhay one of the convicts drove the Jeppe car to Gresham, Ore., where it was abandoned in a field.

Rhay said the Jepses were unharmed.

The prisoners, all involved in previous jail escapes, left Gresham in a blue station wagon which they presumably had stolen, Rhay said. Resham is just east of Portland.

Harold Schoesler, a correctional officer at the prison, said the men had dug through a cement floor in the cell block and tunneled about 40 feet to a point outside.

Warden Bob Rhay said homemade shovels were found in the tunnel.

"The men were not armed when they left, unless possibly they had homemade knives," Schoesler said. "They would have no firearms at any rate. Apparently they left on foot."

The tunnel was discovered between 9:30 and 10 p.m. The men had last been seen at dinner about 6 p.m.

The men were identified as Vertis James Barrett, 35, Arthur St. Peter, 39, Neil C. Wallen, 28, John L. Mullenix, 33, Harold Thomas, 38, Donald Maseros, 23, and Richard Eugene Loux, 26.

As Route To Victory

Advocates Strike At Viet Lifelines

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor believes that U.S. air strikes against Communist bases and supply lines in North Viet Nam and Laos could contribute to victory in South Viet Nam.

He also believes that the outcome of the anti-Communist guerrilla war is "very much in doubt."

The ambassador's appraisal, made in an interview with Life magazine, set off speculation that he might recommend an escalation of the war when he meets this week with President Johnson in Washington. Taylor flies home Wednesday.

"Military action outside the country, just as pure military action inside the country, will not win in itself," Taylor cautioned in the interview. "Let us say generally that the issue is very much in doubt. The winner will be the one that has the ultimate will to win. But the military aspect is only one piece of it."

U.S. policy-makers, dissatisfied with the way the war has been going, have been studying the possibility of extending to the north to check support of the Viet Cong. Some observers fear Communist China then might take a direct hand.

Taylor said the Communists have grown in strength despite heavy losses. Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Viet Nam, said in the Life interview that body counts show 12,000 Viet Cong have been killed so far this year compared with 6,000 government casualties. He said actual Communist losses probably totaled 18,000.

"It is absolutely inconceivable to me that the Viet Cong could ever militarily defeat the armed forces of South Viet Nam," Westmoreland said.

SAIGON was hit Sunday by its most serious antigovernment riot since Premier Tran Van Huong took power two and a half weeks ago. Huong ordered police and paratroopers to use tear gas to disperse a march of 1,000 Buddhists on the government palace.

An earlier Buddhist demonstration in which a score of persons were injured and 40 arrested touched off the palace march.

State Counts Six Dead In Road Mishaps

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Six traffic fatalities were reported in Missouri over the weekend, four of them Friday night and two Sunday.

The dead are:

Harold Gail Feagan, 18, of Hematite; Robert Adams, 22, of Mexico; Terry Reed Martin, 19, of Brookfield, and Donald Ray Mayes, 21, of Cowgill, all of whom died Friday night; and Roy J. Wilson, 20, of suburban St. Louis, and Berle Trinke, 31, of Kansas City, both of whom were Sunday deaths.

Feagan was killed riding in a car which crashed into an embankment on Missouri 21 near Potosi. Adams was in a car that overturned on Missouri 13 three miles north of Higginsville. Martin died when the car in which he was a passenger smashed into a rock bluff. Mayes' frozen body was found beneath the ice of a creek near Polo where his car had run off Missouri 116.

Wilson was fatally injured in a two-car collision at Bridgeton, in St. Louis County, and Trinke died when his car, which police said was on the wrong side of divided U.S. 71, collided with another car on Kansas City's south side.

Billie Sol Back to Court

JAILED—U.S. Dist. Judge Sarah T. Hughes forfeited the $10,000 bond of convicted promoter Billie Sol Estes (right) today and told the U.S. marshal to arrest him. It marked the first time Estes had been confined since his first arrest by the FBI March 29, 1962.

U.S. Atty. Barefoot Sanders made the motion for bond forfeiture because, he said, Estes had traveled outside the 100-county jurisdiction of the federal court. Estes is shown as he entered court with his father this morning. (UPI Telephoto)

YOUR CHILD MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS 1 OUT OF 3 DOES

Fidgeting, nose-picking, a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms, ugly parasites that medical experts say infect 1 out of every 3 persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, they must be killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do... and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with dangerous, highly contagious Pin-Worms which infect entire families. Get genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge... small, easy-to-take tablets... special sizes for children and adults.

Fires In City

City firemen doused three grass fires Sunday afternoon and no damage was reported in any of them.

The alarms were at 3:04 p.m. to the Homer Greer residence, 1013 East 10th; at 4:35 p.m. to the Katy Railroad overpass along the right of way on South Limit; and at 5:35 p.m. to the 700 block of East Broadway in Washington Park.

A tire blew out and caught fire at 11:04 a.m. Sunday resulting in $50 damage to a 1958 Ford owned by Rass Neal, Marshall. Firemen were summoned to the scene of the mishap at 1900 East 12th.

A motor burned out on a furnace resulting in $50 damage at 8:25 a.m. Sunday at the residence at 2222 W. Second St. Terrace. The motor was out when firemen arrived, however. Firemen listed the occupant as Lucille Linnum.

Release of the All-State team to the press and radio will be made for Thursday Dec. 3 announcements.

Officers of the Association were re-elected: D. Kelly Scruton, Sedalia Democrat - Capital, president; Dick Mackey, The Kansas City Star, vice-president; and Howard Kee, St. Louis Globe Democrat, secretary-treasurer.

The meeting was held at the University of Missouri's Brewer Field House. The next meeting will be held in St. Louis this coming spring for the Missouri State High School Class "L" basketball tournament after which selection of the All-State Classes "L", "M", and "S" teams will be elected.

County Fire Truck Returns To Service

Pettis County's rural Fire Department has its own fire truck back in service after having been without the vehicle nearly a month. The truck was restored to service Saturday.

The pump transmission on the firefighting apparatus of the truck broke down Oct. 25 and late arrival of parts from the American La France Company caused the long delay. Firemen used a tank truck borrowed from the LaMonte Fire Department, but its transmission halted Nov. 10 and the department was completely without firefighting equipment three days until the borrowed vehicle was repaired.

Sunday firemen doused a grass fire at 4:40 p.m. near the KSIS Radio Station on north Highway 65. There was no damage. The blaze spread from burning trash.

Ann Landers Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: I've heard of young brides going to pieces on their wedding night but I've never heard of this happening to a bridegroom—until my daughter came home from her honeymoon after 24 hours of "married life."

Beverly went with Phillip for two years. They met in college. Beverly knew Phillip and his mother (a widow) were devoted to one another but she didn't know they were crazy.

We gave the couple a beautiful wedding which was almost ruined by Phillip's mother. She cried so loudly during the ceremony you would have thought it was a funeral. Then she had to leave the receiving line and go lie down because she didn't feel well.

The wedding was on a Saturday. Sunday night Beverly was home. She said Phillip was up all Saturday night talking to his mother on the phone. He called her once and she called him twice. Then Beverly and Phillip got into an argument over his mother and Phillip said he had a headache and went to sleep. Beverly packed her suitcase and came home the next day.

Almost two weeks have passed and Phillip has not even called Beverly. What should be done?—DISTRESSED.

Dear Distressed: There is no hope for Phillip unless he leaves his mother's side long enough to see a head doctor. And Beverly should see a lawyer about an annulment.

Dear Ann Landers: My wife and I have been married 13 years. Our 11-year-old daughter is retarded. We have a fine seven-year-old son who understands his sister's problem and treats her beautifully.

The doctors have told us that our daughter is teachable and has urged us to put her in an institution where she will be among children on her own level and can be trained to do many things for herself. We could visit her any time we choose and talk to her on the telephone. It is heartbreaking to give up this dependent child but we know we must do it now while she is young enough to be taught.

The problem is our relatives. They say we are heartless and selfish—that we are getting rid of the girl because she is a bur-

TV Networks Reflect On Tragic Day

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Special commemorative programs on the first anniversary of John F. Kennedy's death were important segments in all network television schedules. Sunday. Without exception, they were put together with reverent hands.

NBC's memoir, "John F. Kennedy Remembered," was a thoughtful, slow-moving and impressive hour. At the outset, the narrator invited us to return along the route that carried the assassinated president from the Capitol building to Arlington Cemetery a year ago.

As the camera moved slowly along empty city streets to the recorded sounds of the muffled drums in the Kennedy funeral cortege, it paused at places where Kennedy had spoken and, once again, we heard him speak—mostly informally.

The camera work, much of it made at night with infrared film, was magnificent. So was the portrait of the thoughtful, civilized man that emerged.

At the same hour, ABC presented an infinitely more personal, informal portrait of John F. Kennedy.

A number of people who knew him well — from a primary school teacher to White House associates — sat before microphone and camera and reminisced about the Kennedy they had known. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor was so affected by his recollections that he wept openly before the cameras.

As they talked, motion picture and still photographs were showing an active man who loved the outdoors, the sea, his children and enjoyed life.

The unpretentious ABC approach seemed to this viewer the most rewarding for it showed the qualities — wit, style and grace — that gave his short administration its special luster, especially in retrospect.

6 Airmen Dead In Crash Of 1-Engine Craft

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb. (AP) — Six airmen were killed Sunday in the crash of a U6A single-engine plane in a rural area near here.

Two of the dead were Missourians: S. Sgt. Harold L. Hrenchir, 33, of St. Joseph, who is survived by his widow and three children; and A2C David R. Theriot, 23, of Kirkwood, who is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mary Armistead.

The other victims were: Maj. Robert E. Wilson, 42, the pilot, of Edinburg, Tex.; 1st Lt. Chester E. Higgenbotham, 32, Council Bluffs, Iowa; A1C Donald W. Moore, 23, Troy, N. Y.; and Maj. Lee A. Craft, 40, Modesto, Calif.

Maj. Wilson was a member of the 818th Headquarters Squadron. The others were members of the 51st Strategic Missile Squadron.

A witness, Joe Bodle of Nebraska City, said the plane "came down and hit a power pole and did a flip-flop, crashing to the ground. The plane exploded."

The six men were thrown clear of the burning wreckage but all were burned.

Police said a 69,000 volt transmission line between Omaha and Wichita, Kan., was knocked out and some electric users were without power for a time.

Islands Off Coast Face Power Shortage

FRIDAY HARBOR, Wash. (AP) — "The Thanksgiving turkey is probably out the window, unless they use charcoal broilers or something, but otherwise we're getting along fine."

R. E. Hartzog, editor of the Friday Harbor Journal, summed up the situation Sunday as Washington's San Juan Islands faced several weeks of power rationing.

An underwater cable from the mainland broke Thursday night, cutting off the supply of nearly 6,000 power users. The break was tentatively located Saturday. William Frans, Bonneville power administration area manager, said it is impossible to tell how long the repair job will take, but it will be weeks.

Diesel generators are supplying part of the need.

Artist Will Forgive Repentant of Gang

CHADDS FORD, Pa. (AP) — "This is the way I have chosen to try and make some good come out of this unfortunate incident," said artist Andrew Wyeth as he announced he would forgive vandals who damaged his studio last Oct. 31.

They "came to me personally and make restitution according to their conscience and ability to pay; give solid evidence that they understand the personal harm in their act and would never repeat it. Any who do not fulfill these to me will be prosecuted."

Wyeth said state police had told him they have the names of about 20 of a gang of some 50 youths who sacked his studio, smashing and damaging art works. Wyeth said eight had visited him Saturday to apologize, pleading their lives "lacked excitement and real things to do."

Mrs. Fred Steinbauer, 48, was shot in the back twice at their home in Burgess, near the Kansas border, Saturday evening and died 2 1/2 hours later in a hospital at Pittsburg, Kan.

No charge has been filed against the son, Francis Steinbauer.

Sheriff Cecil Blanchard quoted the father, Fred Steinbauer, as saying his son had been mentally disturbed in recent weeks. The youth was given a medical discharge from the Air Force.

Passengers Pick Flights For Movies

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
(First of two on show biz in sky)
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Recently a Californian visiting New York called an airline to confirm his return reservation. "What's the movie?" he asked.

"We'll be showing 'Murder Ahoy,'" said the passenger agent.

"Oh," replied the traveler. He had seen "Murder Ahoy" on his flight to New York. So he called another airline and booked passage on a flight that was showing "I'd Rather Be Rich."

The passenger was this reporter, and the experience introduced me to a new, high-flying form of entertainment that is becoming an important factor in the fortunes of two industries: movies and airlines.

TWA was first to introduce airborne movies, starting on transatlantic flights two and a half years ago. Later the service was extended to transcontinental flights, in both first-class and tourist.

Thomas McFadden, vice president in charge of marketing, considers the movies an important factor in TWA's climb out of the red and into sizable profits.

Other airlines took notice. This year American Airlines began offering movies on cross-country flights — or stereophonic music for those preferring more relaxed entertainment. Continental Airlines began its Golden Marquee movie service between Los Angeles and Chicago in August and then inaugurated films between Los Angeles and Houston.

A fortnight ago United Airlines started offering movies on all flights to Hawaii. Installations are now being made to extend the service to coast-to-coast planes after the first of the year.

Nearly everyone seems pleased with the new form of show business. The film companies are delighted with the word-of-mouth publicity created for movies by the opinion-setting air travelers, many of whom had lost the film-going habit.

Rentals of movies to airlines is also a growing source of revenue. It is estimated that production companies now earn $3 million a year from that source, with the figure likely to double next year.

Passengers generally seem enthusiastic. Movies help while away the time on what could be a boring flight. A pilot swears this to be true: He once flew in early to John F. Kennedy International Airport on a tailwind and his passengers refused to disembark until the movie was concluded.

One element seems displeased with airplane movies: Certain foreign airlines. At a recent meeting in Athens of the International Air Transport Association, a proposal was made to ban entertainment on transatlantic flights.

Next: The battle of the systems.

Cardinal Ritter Hits At Delay Tactics On Vote

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A vote on religious liberty at the second Vatican Council's third session in Rome was blocked "by the delaying tactic of a very small minority," Joseph Cardinal Ritter of St. Louis said Sunday.

Ritter made the statement in a news conference on his return from Rome.

"It would be impossible," the Roman Catholic archbishop of St. Louis said, "to mask the disappointment felt by the vast majority of council fathers at the failure of this session to record even a preliminary vote on religious liberty."

"Our feeling, of frustration," Ritter continued, "was heightened by the conviction that we were stalled by the delaying tactic of a very small minority."

The Cardinal did not name the "very small minority."

The proposed document would state that the Roman Catholic Church believes it is the right of the individual to follow his own ideas in the worship of God.

Still Studying the Effect Of Car Strikes on Economy

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — How hard have the automobile strikes hit the economy?

That question has yet to be answered.

Economists are assessing the situation and the consensus during the week seemed to be that it was a jolt but not a severe one.

It will take more time to tell definitely.

Some results showed up in business statistics for October, when General Motors was shut down.

More will be found in November, when Ford Motor Co. was all but closed by local-level work stoppages.

The General Motors strike had been settled and the Ford walkouts were fading toward a close.

Declines of durable goods, factory orders and industrial production in October reflected the effects of the General Motors strike.

The strikes had cost General Motors and Ford production of 600,000 cars and this was mirrored by a loss of 24 per cent in new car sales in the first 10 days of November.

Despite the decline of new car sales, retail trade in October showed only a 3 per cent loss from a year earlier and rang up gains in other segments of trade.

With labor peace established, General Motors got back into the full swing of production.

Not so for Ford, which had concluded a national agreement with the United Autoworkers before General Motors was struck. Ford was in full production while G M was idle, but local disputes cropped up and all but one of Ford's assembly plants was closed down.

Strikes at local plants caused a starvation of parts and Ford closed most of its assembly lines. More than half of its 160,000 workers were idle.

However, settlement of the strike at the vital Sterling Township, Mich., parts plant as the week neared an end brought an announcement from Ford that closed assembly lines would start moving again next week.

GM and Chrysler scheduled record output during the week but production slipped to an estimated 157,800 cars from 178,327 the previous week and 188,059 a year ago.

With GM dealers still short of 1965 models, industry sales in early November dropped to 144,031 from 189,947 a year earlier.

Doubts began to rise that domestic car sales for the 1964 calendar year would reach the widely predicted eight million.

Rebellion Of Teachers Expected to Continue

By G. K. HODENFIELD
WASHINGTON (AP) — The teacher rebellion which erupted across the nation this fall is not a sometime thing.

Every sign points to its continuation, and its spreading to other sections.

Witness: — T. M. Stinnett of the 900,000-member National Education Association: "The teachers in this country finally are fed up to the teeth with the shabby treatment they've been getting. They're going to do something about it."

— Albert Shanker, president of New York City's United Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO: "Teachers have developed a sense of their own dignity and worth. No longer will they tolerate the kinds of conditions they have been putting up with for years."

Teacher rebellion is nothing new in this country, but never before has it been so bitter and so widespread.

Strikes and walkouts have been called in Pawtucket, R.I.; Louisville, Ky.; Catonsville, Md., and in Louisiana and Oklahoma.

Warnings flags are flying in New York and New Jersey, and in the hundreds of overseas schools operated by the Defense Department.

There is watchful waiting in the state of Utah, where the teachers appear to have won their fight.

Salaries are the big issue, but not the only one. Teachers also want better working conditions, including smaller classes, and a stronger voice in setting educational policy.

Only a few years ago, teachers confined their grumbling to the confines of the faculty lounge — if they had one — or the privacy of a professional meeting.

Today they seem willing and able to challenge the local school board, as in Pawtucket; protest a statewide election, as in Oklahoma; take on the governor and legislature, as in Utah and Louisiana; or even go to the mat with a powerful branch of the federal government, as in the case of the overseas schools.

In Catonsville, Md., teachers walked off the job er, MacMillan, Bloedel & Powell cut its price of newsprint by $10 a ton from the $134 quotation that has been in effect since 1957. Other major newsprint producers were studying the move but hadn't followed.

Major aluminum producers raised their prices of unalloyed ingot by 1/2 cent a pound to 24 1/2 cents and boosted most fabricated products by 1 cent a pound.

Steel production dipped a bit during the week for the second week in a row. However, output remained near the fastest rate of the last 4 1/2 years. The mills turned out 2,612,000 tons of ingots, 1 per cent below the preceding week.

Spurred by good corporate news, the stock market twice surged to new all-time highs. Among developments were 2-for-1 stock splits by Sears, Roebuck & Co., Eastman Kodak Co. and Coca Cola and Du Pont's distribution of its last 23 million shares of General Motors stock. Price changes also made news.

The big Canadian papermakwhen it appeared they might not receive their November paychecks. Local officials floated a $37,500 loan to keep the schools open.

There is an uneasy truce in Louisville, where the voters turned down a tax increase which would have provided higher salaries. The teacher strike has been called off, but the teachers have turned to the courts for redress.

Oklahoma teachers took a one day "professional holiday" when the state's voters rejected four educational measures, including one for higher pay. The teachers have appealed to the legislature, with a threat of a school boycott if more money isn't forthcoming.

In Louisiana, teachers marched on the state capital to dramatize their demands for higher salaries. If the legislature and the governor don't provide them, the teachers may boycott the classrooms.

The National Education Association has accused the Defense Department of renegeing on its promise to pay the teachers overseas on a scale comparable to large U.S. cities. Unless this disagreement is settled, the NEA is expected to blacklist the overseas schools, and ask its members not to take positions there.

Teacher salaries are set by local school boards, based on the amount of money available from taxes.

Thus, in Catonsville, Md., and in Louisville, the teachers protested the amount raised locally. In Oklahoma and Louisiana, the rebellion was sparked by failure of the state to provide more money.

30,000 Pay Homage At JFK's Grave

WASHINGTON (AP) — Shivering with cold but warm in remembrance, some 30,000 Americans climbed the long slopes of Arlington National Cemetery Sunday to the eternal flame that burns above John F. Kennedy's grave.

Some wept, some knelt, some touched rosaries. Some pushed the wheelchairs of the aged, others trundled baby carriages bearing infants who were unborn when, a year earlier, the young president was assassinated.

Many brought home-made bouquets or single flowers. The first tribute of the anniversary day was an armful of wildflowers from the sandy soil of Kennedy's beloved home at Hyannis Port, Mass. They were sent by the widow, Jacqueline, who was in seclusion in New York with her children.

The wildflowers were laid at the foot of the grave by Mrs. Kennedy's mother, Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss. She was admitted to Arlington at 7:10 a.m., 10 minutes before the gates were opened to scores of men, women and children who were waiting at dawn despite a temperature 10 degrees below freezing.

An hour later came the daughters of President Johnson, Luci Baines and Lynda Bird, each carrying a long-stemmed yellow rose. They knelt and placed the flowers, one on each side of the widow's bouquet. There was a floral piece, also, from the President.

Then, at quarter-hour intervals through the day, came Boy Scouts, military units, church groups, government officials, foreign emissaries, Supreme Court justices and devoted members of the late president's White House staff. And continuously, a slow-moving stream of ordinary citizens. By sunset the grave was banked deep in blossoms and 30,000 visitors had passed the grave, cemetery officials estimated.

There were many nuns and Catholic brothers paying tribute to the nation's first Roman Catholic president. But, as it happened, it was the floral tribute of the embassy of Israel that was being placed on the grave at 1:30 p.m., the moment Lee Harvey Oswald shot the president in Dallas on Nov. 22, 1963.

Since then, nearly 8 million people have made the pilgrimage to the sloping patch of Virginia land, enclosed by a low white picket fence, that overlooks the broad Potomac and the nation's capital.

Sunday, many of them — like the late president's brother, Sen.-elect Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y. — came direct from religious services where clergymen spoke of John Kennedy's struggle for peace, racial justice and an end to poverty.

Under the green dome of St. Matthews Cathedral, where kings and prime ministers attended the president's funeral last Nov. 25, the Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, former president of the University of Notre Dame, summoned all men to carry on Kennedy's ideals.

The loved president, said the priest, "walked among the noblest, and among the workers in field and factory. He walked with relaxation and joy, and they smiled back at him." For, said Father Cavanaugh, men felt that Kennedy's labors were God's work.

With Robert Kennedy at the special Mass was his wife, Ethel; his sister, Eunice, and her husband, Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver; actor Peter Lawford, husband of another Kennedy sister, Patricia; and a dozen nephews and nieces of the late president.

All motored to the cemetery after the Mass.

At the Washington Cathedral, Episcopal, a memorial evensong service heard Kennedy extolled by a Canadian bishop as "this union of the true American with the progressive Catholic."

It was this union, suggested the Rt. Rev. Kenneth C. Evans, bishop of Ontario, that enabled Kennedy "to play a universal role in the history of these times beyond that played in their times by any of his illustrious predecessors."

"He touched the mind and heart of humanity, and brought resolution, courage and a sense of purpose, perhaps even of mission, to people of many lands other than America," said the Anglican bishop.

Community College Role As Vital Necessity Today

In the tidal wave of changes in education a community college today is almost a necessity. Dr. Herbert Wood, director of the Kansas City Regional Council for Higher Education, Kansas City, stated in his talk at the Teacher Appreciation Dinner given Thursday night at Horace Mann School by the PTA of that school.

The colleges and universities are changing and so quietly people on the campus do not realize it, Dr. Wood said. Public institutions are stressing basic research and have become major institutions carrying out this very necessary program.

State Teachers Colleges, he went on to say, are developing into universities with the enlargement of the programs, the enrollment and the needed addition of buildings.

The development of a community college or junior college has been one of the approaches to this problem. There are two basic reasons why this has proved so successful and many more young people have gone on to higher education. First, the board and room for those two years should be at a minimum for the student stays at home and second the cost of tuition.

In the larger institutions they have to divide the same for all and the cheapest is the basic general course. The first two years is when students come out, many students do not make it through their freshman year.

They are able to get this first basic training at the community college and then go on to specialization at other colleges and universities.

This is a development of a

Botulism Hits Students After Music Festival

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Four cases of botulism have been confirmed and four other persons are under observation as possible victims of the severe type of food poisoning.

Three high school youths, in serious condition, are in hospitals.

The victims were stricken after attending the Prairie League High School music festival in Herndon, in Northwest Kansas last Wednesday. There were 177 persons at the festival.

Dr. Donald Wilcox of the state board of health has gone to the area to seek the cause of the outbreak.

Gerald Johnson, 14, of Lenora, is being treated in a respirator in a hospital at Hays. His father, Wilbur Johnson, said the boy showed slight improvement Sunday.

Rhonda Long, 17, of Clayton, and Stanley Newell, 17, of Sedalia, were flown to a Denver hospital and are under intensive therapy. Their condition is fair.

Keith Dible, 35, who took a load of students to Herndon in the Rexford school bus, became ill Saturday and a Colby physician diagnosed his case as botulism. He was not hospitalized.

Four students are under observation. They are Gloria Johnson, sister of Gerald; Donna Miett and Paulette Miett of the Leoville area, and Donna Mindrup of Lenora.

All seven of the stricken students attend Leoville rural high school, between Oberlin and Hoxie.

community on education, it is a need for the progress of the community and to relieve the situation in colleges and universities that exists today. It is giving all young people an opportunity for higher education.

The community college program is all over the country, he said, and California is way out ahead. Community colleges are being built in Kansas City and St. Louis and many of the forward thinking communities throughout the state have realized this is something that must be done and have already built or plan to build the two year community college.

Dr. Wood went on to tell of other changes in colleges, too, in the business courses. You teach some things and leave other things out, for a student cannot be taught everything because there is not enough time or text books. The training of teachers has changed, too, for they have gone to greater specialization and new methods.

There is a new development of colleges and universities working together to develop the best education possible. Formally each institution went its own way, on occasion they got together around a table and talk. Now these organizations are banding together to develop consultations. A student may now enroll in one college and take a course in another.

Too there is a daily program on science through a seminar particularly in industry, which lasts three hours where there are lectures and then experiments given in research labs. Industries are interested because they want to tell about their work and the students are interested because they are learning first hand about research.

And so, concluded Dr. Wood, the tidal wave of change in education is here, it has been coming for some time, and the people need to change with it and accept it.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. L. L. Anderson.

Presiding was Mrs. Paul Dey, president, and invocation was given by Mrs. Irwin Lehmer.

Mrs. Harley Sanford was in charge of the ice breaker assisted by Mrs. Dorsey Schupp and Mrs. Charles Goosen.

Guests were introduced by Mrs. Dey, among them being Mrs. Jake Summers, president of the PTA council, those at the speaker's table and the school faculty and their guests.

Mrs. Jacque Cowherd was chairman of the dinner.

Yellow carnations tied with yellow ribbon were presented to the teachers and special guests. Mrs. Willard Craig, Jr., was in charge of the corsages.

Each person had a paper turkey name-tag with Mrs. Wilbur Mosier in charge.

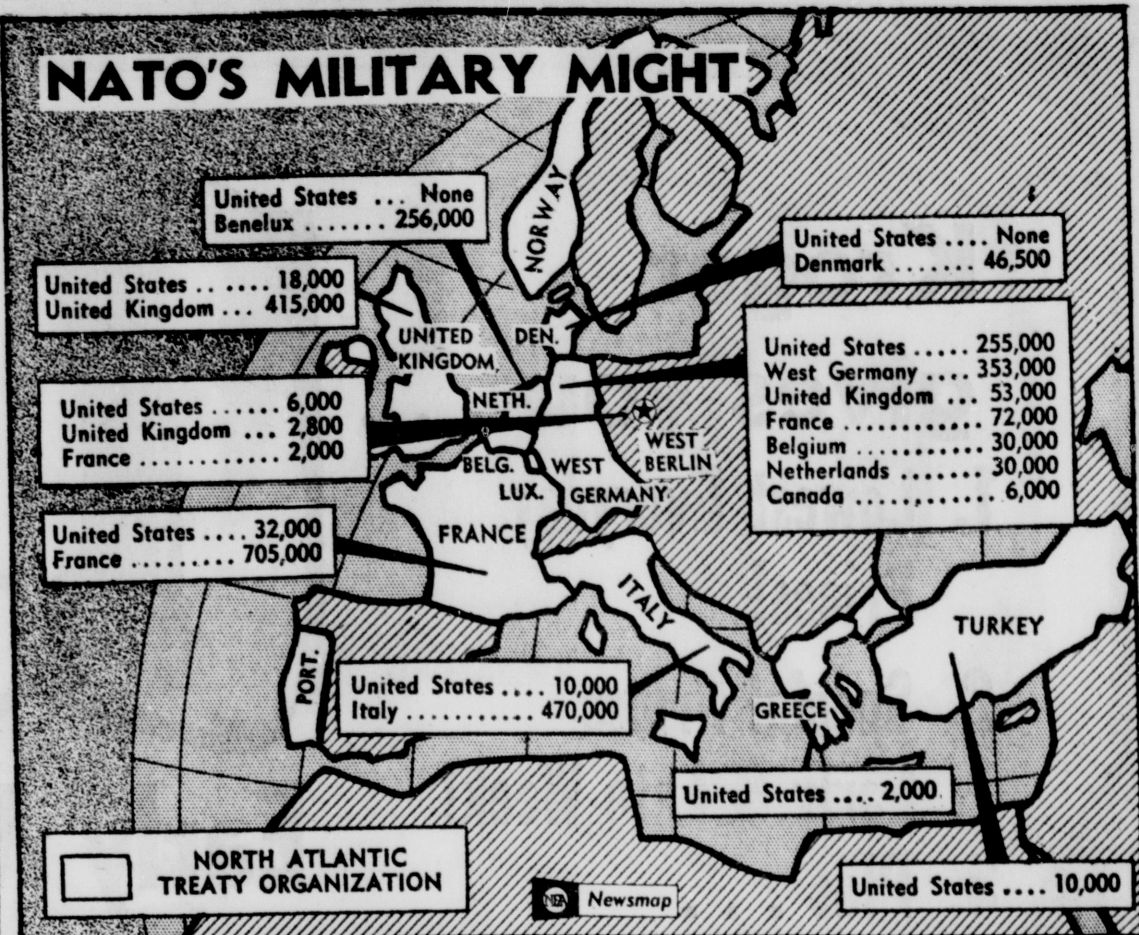

Cornucopias and baskets holding fall leaves, persimmons and other things in keeping with the season were on the tables and very attractive. Chairman of the decorations was Mrs. Dorsey Schupp.

Mrs. Guy Snyder made the programs.

General chairman of the dinner was Mrs. Jacque Cowherd.

Observe Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Parris W. Herndon, California, observed their 49th wedding anniversary Nov. 14 at their home.

Nearly 2.8 million allied troops—representing countries who are members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization—are presently deployed around the fringes of the Soviet Union and its satellites, according to Defense Department estimates. What will happen to these troops when and if the Multilateral Nuclear Force (MLF) becomes a reality is a question now being pondered by NATO nations. The NATO nation deployment is not the limit of America's military interest in Europe. Some 10,000 American servicemen are stationed in Spain. About 30,000 sailors are on U.S. ships cruising the Mediterranean and about 20 Polaris submarines are wandering around the North Atlantic Ocean.

Johnsons Lead Nation In Tribute to Late President

NEW YORK (AP)—A cluster of white rosebuds and jasmine lay among hundreds of other floral offerings on a grave in Arlington National Cemetery.

A somber President and Mrs. Johnson, both dressed in black, attended a special memorial service in Austin, Tex.

Air Force planes flew over Cape Cod in the missing buddy formation — one position vacant.

In these and many other ways a thoughtful nation paused Sunday to remember, and pay tribute, on the first anniversary of President John F. Kennedy's assassination.

The tragedy that had reached around the world was relived around the world in solemn ceremonies, as hundreds of thousands put aside part of their day for their own private ways of remembering.

Mrs. John F. Kennedy sent a small spray of wildflowers to the grave. They were delivered by her mother, Mrs. Hugh Auchincloss.

The President's widow remained in seclusion with her two children, Caroline and John Jr., at their weekend Long Island residence.

The mother of the 35th president, Rose Kennedy, attended two Roman Catholic Masses at Hyannis Port, Mass., where the Kennedy family has its summer home.

Sen.-elect Robert F. Kennedy and his sister, Mrs. Sargent Shriver, knelt by the Arlington grave to lay roses on it, and to pray.

In Boston about 3,000 persons, including Patricia Lawford, the late president's sister, and state dignitaries, attended a memorial Mass celebrated by Richard Cardinal Cushing. He called the slain president one of "God's greatest gifts."

Tens of thousands stood in silent prayer at New York's Kennedy Airport and in Dallas at the hour of Kennedy's death.

World leaders again issued declarations of sorrow, as so many of them had exactly one year before.

In Bonn, Mayor Wilhelm Daniels laid a wreath at the John F. Kennedy Bridge across the Rhine River.

Dutchmen flocked to Amsterdam's Kennedy Avenue to look at a bust of the late president which was unveiled Sunday.

Mrs. John F. Kennedy was sent a bouquet of red carnations from German students.

There were even a few remembrance services behind the Iron Curtain.

The Warsaw popular daily Zycie Warszawy published a tribute to Kennedy.

In Moscow, the Soviet Communist party paper Pravda praised the late president as a man of peace, and urged President Johnson "to develop the realistic tendencies which were planned in the Kennedy years."

In Washington, more than 30,000 Americans, their lines black against the Virginia hills, climbed the long slopes to the eternal flame that burns above Kennedy's grave.

There were young adults and old, babies in carriages and aged in wheelchairs.

President Johnson's daughters, Lynda Bird and Luci Baines, each brought a long-stemmed yellow rose to place beside the wildflowers the widow had sent. There was a wreath from the President.

In Los Angeles, a torch was lit at the Memorial Coliseum to burn from the time on the clock when he was shot until sunset.

Children of five ethnic backgrounds — Caucasian, Negro, Chinese, Spanish and Seminole Indian — placed wreaths at the

Ambassador Stepping Into University Post

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Howard P. Jones said today he will resign soon to become chancellor of the Center of Cultural and Technical Interchange at the University of Hawaii.

foot of Miami's Torch of Friendship in Bayfront Park.

In Dallas, two uniformed policemen solemnly placed a wreath of red roses on the grave of Patrolman J. D. Tippit, slain by Lee Harvey Oswald, the president's assassin.

After the 15-minute ceremony, Mrs. Tippit walked to a police squad car, sat alone and wept.

DISCOVER THE SMOOTHEST WHISKY EVER TO COME OUT OF CANADA

NEXT TIME YOU'RE MAKING THE DRINKS,
INSTEAD OF YOUR USUAL WHISKEY, USE THIS SUPERIOR IMPORT.

Do what thousands of smart drinkers have done: Compare Windsor Canadian with your usual whiskey. Make two drinks, one with your "usual," the other with Windsor. You'll be amazed — as thousands are — at the extra smoothness of Windsor.

There are three reasons for this!

1. Windsor is distilled and aged in dry, crisp, mile-high Rocky Mountain air. 2. Windsor is made from Western Canadian grain, hearty and vigorous. 3. And the water is clear pure glacial water.

No wonder Windsor is the smoothest whisky ever to come out of Canada.

Yet this uniquely smooth, elegant import is priced right in line with leading popular-priced whiskeys. Try it.

Michigan To Rose Bowl; Opponent Not Yet Selected

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's Michigan in the Rose Bowl but the Wolverines may have to sweat it out a week before learning the identity of their opponent — Oregon State or Southern California.

Over-all records favor Oregon State but the Pacific Coast selectors are expected to wait and see how Southern California fares against top-ranked Notre Dame Saturday.

Should the Trojans happen to unseat the mighty Fighting Irish, a feat nine others have failed to do this year, they likely would be tapped for the host role at Pasadena. If the Trojans lose, it would send the pendulum swinging to Oregon State.

Athletic directors of the eight Pacific Athletic Conference members take a preliminary vote today. If they're not unanimous, then the next ballot will be put off until Nov. 29.

Oregon State and Southern Cal finished with similar 3-1 records in conference play but Oregon State's over-all 8-2 mark is more impressive than the Trojans' 6-3. The PAC selectors have no strings attached. They can pick whom they please.

With one more week of heavy football, headlined by the Notre Dame-Southern Cal game at Los Angeles and the Army-Navy service spectacle at Philadelphia, the major bowl line-up is almost set.

Here it is:
ROSE BOWL — Michigan, 8-1, vs. Oregon State, 8-2, or Southern California, 6-3.

COTTON BOWL — Arkansas, 10-0, vs. Nebraska, 9-1.

ORANGE BOWL — Alabama, 9-0, vs. Texas, 8-1.

SUGAR BOWL — Louisiana State, 7-1-1, vs. Syracuse, 7-3.

GATOR BOWL — Florida State, 8-1-1, vs. opponent yet to be named.

BLUEBONNET BOWL — Tulsa, 7-2, vs. Mississippi, 5-3-1.

None of the bowls can offer a game with national championship implications as the game between the Nos. 1 and 2 teams, Texas and Navy, last New Year's Day in the Cotton Bowl.

Notre Dame, firmly fixed in the No. 1 position with an imposing 9-0 record, has withdrawn from consideration, helped along by the fact the big bowls couldn't wait, anyhow.

The Irish smashed Iowa 28-0 in freezing cold at South Bend and now need only to take care of Southern Cal to wind up their first perfect football year since 1949.

Alabama, the No. 2 team which has chosen to spend the holidays in Miami's sunshine, has a rugged Thanksgiving Day assignment coming up with Auburn, an old rival that upset the Tide last year.

Colts Planning Retirement Party

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Baltimore Colts are planning a retirement party for Gino Marchetti that promises to be more exciting than the one they gave him when he retired last year.

The prize defensive end helped prepare for the festivities Sunday as the Colts whipped Los Angeles 24-7 and clinched first place in the National Football League's Western Conference.

The victory, their 10th straight since losing the season opener to Minnesota, brought the Colts their first conference title since 1958 and 1959 when they also won the league championship.

Immediately after the game, Marchetti announced this was his last season. But retiring is nothing new to the 37-year-old veteran of 13 years in the NFL. He quit after last season, only to be convinced to return for another year.

Even though his bones might not appreciate his decision, Marchetti himself must. Instead of going out on a third-place team that won eight games and lost six, he will retire — if he actually does — after a championship game.

Bills Lead East With 9-1 Record

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The American Football League spotlight which focused on Cookie Gilchrist and Buffalo last week swings 3,000 miles this week to focus on Cookie Gilchrist and Buffalo.

Gilchrist, the wild Bill of the Buffaloes, was bounced from the team last week in a serious dispute with Coach Louis Saban, a hassle that threatened to wreck Buffalo's Eastern Division title hopes.

Gilchrist should be looking to make further amends in a key clash at San Diego Thursday that could be a preview of the championship game.

The Bills lead the Eastern Division with a 9-1 record to Boston's 8-2-1. The Chargers lead the Western sector with a 7-2-1 record and will be looking to take a big step toward nailing the title by increasing their bulge over runner-up Kansas City, 5-5.

The Chiefs remained in contention Sunday as Len Dawson passed for three touchdowns before suffering a broken nose in a 28-19 victory over Houston that handed the Oilers their eighth consecutive defeat.

In the only other game scheduled, Billy Cannon scored three touchdowns for the first time since 1962 and Cotton Davidson passed for three scores as Oakland whipped New York 35-26.

Boston defeated Denver 12-7 Friday night while Buffalo and San Diego were idle, and preparing for their Thanksgiving Day battle.

Dawson passed 19 and 26 yards to Fred Arbanas for touchdowns in the first half as the Chiefs built a commanding 21-10 lead, then fired a five-yarder to Chris Burford in the third period. Dawson got the broken nose on the final TD and the Chiefs were unable to score again.

Dawson completed nine of 13 passes for 92 yards before he left.

The Colts most likely will play the Cleveland Browns, who lost to Green Bay 28-21 Sunday but still hold a 1½-game lead over St. Louis in the East with three games to play.

Marchetti led a Colt blitz that constantly kept the Los Angeles quarterbacks on their backs. Roman Gabriel was dumped six times for 56 yards in losses and Bill Munson five times for 46 yards, a total of 102.

"What a great game they played," said Baltimore Coach Don Shula of the defensive unit.

In other games, St. Louis crushed Philadelphia 38-13. Detroit tied Minnesota 23-23. Pittsburgh annihilated New York 44-17. Chicago edged San Francisco 23-21 and Washington trimmed Dallas 28-16.

Lenny Moore, who has scored touchdowns in more consecutive games than any other NFL player in history, put the Colts in front with an 18-yard scoring romp in the first quarter. It was the 14th straight game in which he has scored.

Johnny Unitas set up the touchdown with a 62-yard pass to John Mackey. Jerry Hill scored what proved to be the decisive touchdown on a 17-yard run in the third quarter. Los Angeles finally scored in the fourth quarter on Munson's 21-yard pass to Bucky Pope.

Green Bay used a fumble by Jimmy Brown to help hold Cleveland's magic number at two. Any number of Cleveland victories and St. Louis losses totaling two will give the Browns the Eastern title.

Bart Starr scored the Packers' go-ahead touchdown on a four-yard dash shortly after Lionel Allridge fell on Brown's fumble at the Cleveland 22. Starr's 55-yard pass to Max McGee on a fourth-down-and-inches situation at the Packers' 44 set up the tying score 3½ minutes earlier.

ONRUSHING TIDE—The irresistible drive of unbeaten Alabama is vividly depicted by Ken Bowman as he shakes off tacklers on the way to the goalpost.

Kelso Not Unanimous Selection

NEW YORK (AP) — Kelso, named thoroughbred racing's Horse of the Year for the fifth straight year, was joined today by Bon Nouvel as the Thoroughbred Racing Associations' selection board voted the 4-year-old jumper the champion steeplechase performer of 1964.

Kelso, who whipped arch rival Gun Bow in three of their five clashes including the decisive Washington, D.C., International at Laurel, Md., was not the unanimous selection of the 31 racing secretaries of the 50 TRA tracks. But he was the overwhelming choice. Scattered votes went to Gun Bow; Bold Lad, a 2-year-old colt; Northern Dancer, Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner, and Tosmah, outstanding 3-year-old filly.

After whipping Gun Bow by three-quarters of a length in the Aqueduct on Labor Day, Kelso went on to become the world's leading money - winning horse with a bank account of $1,893,362.

Bon Nouvel, owned by Mrs. Theodora A. Randolph, wrapped up the steeplechase title by putting together a string of five straight victories, including the 19 hazards of the three-mile Grand National. The son of Duc de Fer-Good News was bred by his owner's late husband, Dr. A.C. Randolph, and foaled in Virginia.

Tulsa, Rhome Bust More Grid Records

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tulsa and Jerry Rhome busted some more records and accepted a Bluebonnet Bowl bid, while Cincinnati's Missouri Valley champions were ignored by the bowl selectors despite an impressive victory over Miami of Ohio and a 7-2 record matching Tulsa's.

Tulsa's likely opponent in the game at Houston Dec. 19 will be thrice-beaten but still potent Mississippi. Ole Miss received the bid, but can't accept until its season ends.

Rhyme moved closer to Johnny Bright's national major college record for career total offense as he led the Golden Hurricane to a 39-16 victory at Toledo. Cincy smashed a good Miami club 28-14 at Cincy.

Wichita moved into a second place tie with Tulsa in the conference standings with a 14-6

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23, 24, 25

THIS IS YOUR CHANCE TO STOCK UP FOR THE COMING HOLIDAYS AT WHOLESALE PRICES — DON'T MISS IT!

Yes, for the first time ever, we're throwing open our warehouse doors to the general public! As you know, this is our central distributing point for the Sedalia stores as well as our out of town stores and we're jam-packed with merchandise. But even so, we must put everything on a first-come first-served basis, because we expect a sellout once you discover these prices. As of now, all the brands illustrated in this ad are in stock plus too many others to tell you about. Everything from half pints to half gallons — bourbons, gins, vodkas, wines, scotches, rums, brandies, beers — everything is being put on sale at prices never before offered in Sedalia.

It would be impossible to list all the ridiculous prices in effect, but here is a sampling: Old Crow, half gallons—$7.89; Haig & Haig 5 Star Scotch 5th—$4.88; Cascade Bourbon 5th—$3.59; Seagram's Gin, Quart—$3.67; All Taylor Wines, 5th—$1.22; Bacardi Rum, 5th—$3.59; 10 Hi Bourbon, Qt.—$3.59; Mogen David Flavored Wines, 5th—77c; Busch, Falstaff, Storz, Triumph, 1 way bottles—82c 6-pack, $3.28 case; Country Club Malt Liquor—59c 6 pak, $3.54 case; Goetz 1-way Bottle d Beer—79c 6 pak, $2.99 case.

Costliest Building Near Ready

WASHINGTON (AP) — What may be the costliest building in the nation — the Rayburn House Office Building — is about to open for business.

Although the cost is estimated now at $86.4 million, another $35.7 million is being spent for related construction. This brings the total to more than $122 million.

By comparison, the Pentagon, completed in 1943, cost $75.2 million. New York's Empire State Building cost $42 million, Chicago's Merchandise Mart cost $32 million and the United Nations buildings in New York cost $72 million.

The last congressional office building to be completed, the 1958 Senate Office Building, cost a mere $21.2 million.

The Rayburn Building, named for the late Speaker Sam Rayburn, has a 60 by 20-foot swimming pool, a gymnasium, three levels of underground parking and handsome three-room office suites for 169 representatives.

They will choose offices in January on a seniority basis. The other 266 representatives will remain in the two earlier buildings, which are being remodeled to provide each member with a three-room suite.

The new building covers a two-block area across from the Capitol and sprawls down the side of Capitol Hill.

The main entrance, pillared and Romanesque, is flanked by two huge statues. One, a seated gentleman with a sword, is called "Majesty of the law." The other, a mother figure with child at her knee, is named "spirit of Justice."

In the lobby is a place for a sculptured plaque of Rayburn. Cost of the plaque, according to the architect of the Capitol: $35,000.

Big as it is, the Rayburn Building is shaded by the Pentagon across the Potomac as far as office space goes. But the cost is another matter.

The Capitol Architect's Office — he is J. George Stewart, a former congressman, and he is not an architect — says the present estimated cost of the building — $86.4 million — is $9.5 million more than the estimate in 1962. The figure includes land, foundations, furniture and the like.

Associated with it is a $7.7 million subway train system to carry congressmen the block from the building to the Capitol, $11.7 million for property acquisition nearby, new underground parking garages, and the remodeling of the existing two buildings.

LaMonte Nautilus Club In Meeting At Keller Home

The LaMonte Nautilus Club met Thursday, Nov. 19, at the home of Mrs. Elton Keller. The guest speaker, Barry Williams, gave an informative talk on the benefits that would be derived from a Junior College for the Sedalia area. Williams is a member of the Sedalia Jaycees which has taken over the sponsorship of getting a Junior College in this area.

The committee on community affairs, of which Mrs. Frank Breen is chairman, was in charge of the program.

Mrs. Keller, president, presided over the business meeting. Refreshments were served during the social hour by the hostess.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, Dec. 9, at the home of Mrs. Lee Hudson, of which time the program will be on "Public Affairs and Health."

Junior Garden Club In Wednesday Meet

The Junior Garden Club held its November meeting at the public library, and Cathy Warbritton, president, opened the meeting with the Conservation and Junior Garden Club pledge.

Mrs. J. O. Smith, leader, announced the Christmas party would be held at her home on Dec. 16, with a gift exchange for all the members. Three prizes will be awarded for packages wrapped: 1. in keeping with the season; 2. for the most unusual package and 3. for the most artistic package. Each member is to bring cookies and candies for distribution.

Mrs. George Dryden and Mrs. E. C. Martin, Club 8, had the program. Mrs. Dryden led a dried flower workshop, and each girl made an arrangement under her direction.

After the workshop refreshments were served and the meeting adjourned.

Part of His Plan

Road Beauty and Salt Water Efforts Pledged by Lyndon

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson has made final decisions on two more 1965 programs: to try to beautify American highways and, by 1969, to radically improve methods of purifying salt water.

These ambitious plans, a part of the "Great Society" proposals Johnson will submit to Congress next year, were revealed Friday by Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall after a day-long visit at the LBJ Ranch 15 miles west of here.

Udall, who flew back to Washington Friday night, was succeeded in the parade of Cabinet visitors by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

The interior chief, despite a sniffly nose, seemed pleased

Land Bank Unit Entertained At Annual Dinner

Nearly 300 persons attended the annual Federal Land Bank Association of Sedalia meeting Nov. 17 at Masonic Temple.

The Judo-Karate Team, Whiteman Air Force Base, opened the evening's entertainment with demonstrations.

Dinner was served by Pettis Chapter 27, Order of the Eastern Star.

Speaker of the evening was John R. Bowen, Columbia, regional manager, Federal Land Bank, St. Louis, for this area. Then followed the distribution of gifts and the drawing for prizes as given by the association and the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis.

Financial report showed there are 551 members, with $3,523,013 being loaned to farmers on long-term loan basis in Benton, Cooper, Moniteau, Morgan and Pettis Counties.

Perry B. Edde is the manager of Federal Land Bank Association of Sedalia, with the following directors: Frank B. Van Dyke, president; John W. Rissler, vice-president; Hillard L. Smith, Cooper County; D. L. Kauffman, Morgan County; Joseph Oligschlaeger, Moniteau County.

with his first visit to the chief executive's 400-acre ranch. Asked by newsmen if he expected to remain in the Cabinet, he responded: "Yes, I do. And after my visit today I'll stay with a real sense of excitement."

After his ranch stay Udall unveiled at White House press headquarters in Austin, 65 miles from the ranch, a series of what he termed "hard news" items:

1. Johnson told him to seek a $16-million supplemental appropriation in January for research on desalting and purifying sea and brackish waters, with the aim of bringing costs down to 25 or 35 cents per 1,000 gallons by the end of the President's four-year term in 1969.

The current annual appropriation is $12 million, and the present cost through experimental desalting plants is $1 per 1,000 gallons.

2. The administration will recommend as part of its "Great Society" program a plan to beautify and landscape more than 40,000 miles of federal subsidized interstate highways. Without disclosing details, Udall predicted this will be "very exciting."

3. Johnson has ordered Udall and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to make an inventory of the 24 million acres owned by the Defense Department to determine which properties, if eventually declared surplus, should be made a part of a national conservation program as federal seashores, recreation areas, national parks or wildlife refuges.

Udall noted that just this week McNamara had announced plans to shut down bases involving 375,000 acres. He said this land is part of "the national estate" and should not be auctioned off to private interests without thought to potential national use.

He said he knew from personal experience that some of the bases to be closed could be conserved as parks, seashores and wildlife sanctuaries.

McNamara has argued that the closing of the bases will benefit local communities by placing the land on local tax rolls, something that wouldn't happen

SHE CARES FOR CARE—This Chinese refugee in Hong Kong symbolizes the millions of needy children and adults throughout the world who will be fed through the holiday season's CARE Food Crusade, now underway. Goal of the $6.5 million campaign is to deliver 6.5 million food packages in the names of Americans who give a dollar per package to CARE, New York, N.Y., or to its local offices.

if they were made part of the conservation program.

Besides his meeting with Freeman, Johnson's big announced - in - advance appointment today was with an low-bred Yorkshire boar named Mr. High I.Q. This animal, a bacon producer, was being sent to the ranch in response to an offhand Johnson comment, during a campaign visit to Des Moines, that one thing his ranch could use was a Yorkshire boar.

Knowledge From Daily Mail Sack

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Old people are steadily faring better in our economy, but life is still not fair enough to many of them.

The average income of a retired couple has risen to $3,350 a year, and one out of three couples whose breadwinner is past 65 earns $5,000. But — the bad news is that one of three also brings in less than the $2,500 level the U.S. Department of Labor considers essential to a "modest but adequate" standard of living.

Women now make up nearly a fifth of the membership of U.S. labor unions.

Have you learned anything lately? Some 23 million American adults are going to school. On the other hand we also have 11 million grownups who have less than six years of schooling. Educators refer to them as "Functional illiterates." One of the brightest men I ever knew could be so classified. He was my father, who only went through the third grade, but conducted a business, owned two houses and a farm, and raised five children. It is my opinion that he would punch in when you call Grandmother

...YOU DON'T EXPECT TO REACH TIMBUKTU

Naturally, when you call Grandmother's phone, that's the one you expect to get, and you do. But that's not as easy as it sounds.

Your call must work its way through all sorts of interconnections, wires, cables, switches and so forth until, finally, it picks the right phone out of some 83 million in the U.S.

Yet, out of all the possible chances for mistakes, your call goes where you sent it . . . in town or out-of-town, to Grandmother, wherever she is. This sort of reliability is the result of service improvements that keep increasing the convenience and personal value of your telephone.

What Occurs in Space?

Most taxpayers aren't too much interested any more, but space people are still doing some way-out thinking:

• Latest deal is a real "scramble," reports Science Service. It's a plan to launch one and one-half dozen fertilized eggs into space. (One of the eggs will be hard-boiled as a control.)

Miniature thermistors attached to the eggs will telemeter data on how weightlessness affects the normal development of embryos.

The opportunities for wisecracking about this are so great that the wise editorialist ignores them and passes on to another space-age item:

• Scientists at the USAF School of Aerospace Medicine in San Antonio have finally decided that astronaut Gordon Cooper actually saw the things he said he saw — houses in the Himalayas, for instance, or trucks on roads — during his 34-orbit flight in the Mercury capsule last year, even though it was impossible.

It was impossible because the human eye simply cannot resolve objects that small that far away. But there is a difference between seeing and perceiving, and the difference is in the human brain.

Major Cooper "perceived" vehicles on roads and smoke from locomotives for the same reason that a person can recognize a friend way off down the street but could not describe the face of a stranger. Little signs, subtle configurations, clues of movement and background, tell us what we are looking at.

Major Cooper knew he was looking at a group of houses, say, even though he could not "see" them individually. To the unconscious camera, they may or may not have been recorded as dots, depending upon lens power and film grain.

What it means is that here is a definite place in space for man.

• Finally, speaking of seeing things, Dr. Ingeborg Schmidt of Indiana University claims that the famous "fireflies" of John Glenn and other astronauts were caused by small particles in the liquid part of the eyes.

Normally, the particles sink to the bottom of the eyes, but in orbital freefall they float around and become visible against the proper background.

Thus doth science rip away more veils between man and the unknown.

Lady Bird Records Tragic Story

(Editor's Note: Drew Pearson's column is written today by his associate, Jack Anderson.)

By JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON — Millions of words have been written about the terrible and tragic events in Dallas a year ago. But probably none are more moving than those spoken into a scratchy tape recorder by Mrs. Lady Bird Johnson less than 24 hours after the murder of President Kennedy.

The historic transcript was turned over to the Warren Commission, which will publish it in a few days. Mrs. Johnson's account, which this column is now able to reveal for the first time, not only is a contribution to history but gives probably the clearest insight into the agony and anger of the woman who succeeded as First Lady, Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy.

Although Mrs. Johnson's heart was aching for the young widow she had tried to comfort, although she herself was in a daze, she felt an obligation to record her impressions of what had taken place. Her account begins quite simply:

"It all began so beautifully. After a drizzle in the morning, the sun came out bright and beautiful. We were going into Dallas. . . the streets were lined with people, lots and lots of people, the children all smiling, placards, confetti, people waving from windows. One last happy moment I had was looking up and seeing Mary Griffith (a friend) leaning out of a window waving at me. . ."

"Let's Get Out of Here"

Then came the shots that shook the world, and a hair-raising drive to the Dallas Hospital. Rufus Youngblood, the Vice President's personal Secret Service bodyguard, vaulted over the front seat and flung himself on Lyndon Johnson, forcing him to the floor of the limousine, crying, "get down!"

Mrs. Johnson and Sen. Ralph Yarborough crouched beside them. Over the car's radio, she heard the Secret Service order, "Let's get out of here!"

Still nobody knew what had happened. Mrs. Johnson's account continues: "We pulled up to a building. I looked up and saw it said hospital. . . Sen. Yarborough kept on saying in an excited voice, 'Have they shot the President?' I said something like 'No, it can't be!'"

"Secret Service men began to pull, lead, guide and hustle us out. I cast a last look over my shoulder and saw a bundle of pink just like a drift of blossoms lying on the back seat (of the President's car). I think it was Mrs. Kennedy lying over the President's body (she was wearing a pink suit)."

Inside the hospital, Mrs. Johnson asked to be taken to Mrs. Kennedy: "Suddenly I found myself face to face with Jackie in a small hall. I think it was outside the operating room. You always think of her as being insulated, protected — she was quite alone. I don't think I ever saw anyone so much alone in my life."

Lady Bird Comforts Jackie

"I went up to her, put my arms around her and said something to her. I'm sure it was something like 'God, help us all,' because my feelings for her were too tumultuous to put into words."

"Then I went in to see Nellie (wife of Texas Gov. John Connally). There it was different, because Nellie and I have gone through so many things together since 1938. I hugged her tight, and we both cried, and I said, 'Nellie, it's going to be all right.'"

Not until she returned to her husband did Mrs. Johnson learn that President Kennedy was dead and for the first time hear Lyndon Johnson addressed as "Mr. President." On the return flight to Washington, the new First Lady had a dramatic encounter with the former First Lady.

"Although it was a very hard thing to do, she made it as easy as possible," continues Mrs. Johnson. "She said things like, 'Oh, Lady Bird, it's good that we've always liked you two so much.' She said, 'Oh, what if I had not been there! I'm so glad I was there.'"

Blood-Splattered Glove

"I looked at her, Mrs. Kennedy's dress was stained with blood. One leg was almost entirely covered with it, and her right glove was caked — that immaculate woman — it was caked with blood, her husband's blood. She always wore gloves like she was used to them. I never could. Somehow that was one of the most poignant sights — exquisitely dressed and caked in blood."

"I asked her if I could get someone in to help her change, and she said, 'Oh, no, perhaps I'll ask Mary Gallagher. But not right now.'"

"And then with something — if you can say a person that gentle, that dignified, you can say had an element of fierceness — she said, 'I want them to see what they have done to Jack.'"

"I wanted to help her, but there was nothing I could do to help her."

With those words from the heart, Lady Bird Johnson has preserved a stirring moment of history.

Breznev's Heart

This column has solved the mystery of the top-secret cable from Moscow, reporting that Communist party boss Leonid Brezhnev may have suffered a heart attack.

The day after this column reported receipt of the startling cable, Brezhnev appeared in public looking as healthy as ever.

It turns out that American Intelligence was not misinformed but had misinterpreted a report that heart trouble had forced Brezhnev suddenly to cancel all appointments and appearances.

Apparently, it was an old heart ailment, not a new seizure, that caused the cancellations. Twice in the past, Brezhnev reportedly has had heart attacks.

On doctors' orders, he seldom smokes or drinks and abruptly halts his work if he starts feeling tired. This is what happened on the day he cancelled his schedule.

How Many Days Till Christmas?

The World Today

Time to Reform State Legislatures

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — In all the talk about ending poverty, building the "Great Society" and so on, one element of the population is being overlooked.

These forgotten people — who really need succor — are our state legislators.

Squalid is the only word to describe the conditions they subsist in. Miserable pay. Sometimes no office to work in. A man has to read his mail standing up in a corridor. And he can't even think, he's so busy warding off the hordes of lobbyists that beset him.

Take New Hampshire. This state has the third-largest parliament in the English-speaking world — 424 members. England's Parliament is the biggest and the U.S. Congress second.

Do you know what the New Hampshire legislators are paid? The laughable sum of $100 a year. It is true they don't work anywhere near full time on the job, but you can easily consume $100 in cigars in smoke-filled rooms these days.

Or take Connecticut. Some of the solons there, when called upon to transact the state's business, have applied for and got unemployment compensation. The legislators' pay in Connecticut was, until two years ago, $300 a year, but now has been raised to $2,500 for a two-year term.

This subject is to the forefront now because of a tremendous, fundamental revolution going on in American politics. The U.S. Supreme Court has ruled, with finality, that state legislatures, mostly controlled up to now by rural elements, must be apportioned according to population — "one man, one vote."

The hopes of the backers of this great change are that the states now will resume the role the Founding Fathers envisioned for them — a powerful role in which they would solve their own problems without running to the federal government for help. Such problems as mass transportation in the cities, remedies for urban blight, for poor educational systems, and so on.

The Johnson administration is thinking of turning over to the states billions of dollars in federal taxes. But what will happen to this money in the states where legislatures, meeting for only short terms, have no adequate committee systems or staffs to plan programs, no really sure-fire safeguards against outright thievery?

As Charles S. Rhyne, former president of the American Bar Association, sees it, the times demand a thorough-going reform of state legislatures.

Rhyne argued for the city folks and the suburbanites in the historic, break-through Supreme Court case which resulted in the "one-man, one-vote" ruling.

Rhyne says the states must offer salaries adequate to attract good people to the legislatures, and must give them modern tools to work with.

Men of character are needed, he believes, to withstand the importunities of special interests. Rhyne made a study of Connecticut, not because it's the nation's horrible example, but because he was due to make a speech in Hartford.

"More lobbyists registered to promote or defeat legislation in the last session of the General Assembly than there were legislators!" he said. "There were 330 legislators as compared with at least 380 known lobbyists."

We the Women

Are There No Listeners?

by Ruth Millet,
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

When a woman loses her ability to listen because of her determination to talk incessantly, she cuts herself off from companionship.

This is so often true among older women. They get together for an afternoon because their families are scattered and "mother is lonely." Then they all talk as fast as they can, impatiently interrupting each other and no one really listens to anyone.

It seems to me this is why many older women seem to get so little real pleasure out of each other's company.

All too often the older woman is interested only in herself and is determined to talk about herself at all costs.

Two friends may be in the same boat, both lonely, both eager to keep busy, both wanting to brag a little about their children who are grown and gone from home, both with health problems, etc.

But if neither will really listen with sympathy and understanding when the other talks, if neither will try to build the other up or be impressed with the other they are really almost as lonely together as they would be apart.

Any woman who is heading from middle age to old age ought to watch carefully to see that she doesn't lose her ability to listen to others and really hear what they have to say.

True friendship can't flourish without understanding and an exchange of ideas.

Rabbi Mayerberg Dies From Heart Ailment

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Dr. Samuel S. Mayerberg, 72, religious leader who often fought for civic reforms, died in a hospital of a heart ailment Sunday.

His health caused his retirement in June, 1960, after serving 32 years as rabbi of Temple B'nai Jehudah.

He came to Kansas City in 1928, and a few years later started a fight against the city hall machine of Tom Pendergast. He founded and became the first president of the Charter League which overthrew the machine. He was a member of the city police board 1957-61.

Dr. Mayerberg worked on countless civic and educational projects, and frequently joined Protestant and Catholic clergymen in public undertakings. He was named one of 14 American Jews distinguished in the field of social justice by Albert Vorpman in his book, "Giants of Justice."

Dr. Mayerberg leaves his widow, Gertrude. The funeral will be Tuesday, 11 a. m., at Temple B'nai Jehudah.

Taxpayers Are Counting On Another Cut In 1965

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Taxpayers are beginning to count on another break next year. This is because more people in an out of the federal government are saying that today's surging economy may be running low on stimulants in a few more months.

And the most popular thinking in Washington just now is that a tax cut works faster and better than any attempt to raise government spending by more than the usual year-to-year growth.

The income tax cut last March is getting much of the credit now for supplying the extraumph the economy needed this summer and fall. It was voted in face of a continuing federal deficit. But despite the tax cut the deficit shrank a bit. And the advocates of this fiscal policy are saying they told us so.

Last year's tax cut's effect will still be felt next year, but this time it will be adding very little of a new stimulant to the economy. And government and business economists are talking now of another nudge being needed if the economy is to expand at the rate it set this year.

The expansion is wanted to provide more jobs, more personal and corporate income. In turn this will mean more treasury receipts, even if the tax rates themselves are lower. Talk of a coming recession is still strictly academic. That it could come some time in the indefinite future is accepted by most persons who think about it at all. But few see any signs that it is in the making now.

What more persons are seeing is a chance that the present rate of economic growth can slide toward a standstill by next summer or fall. And the new fiscal theory is that this can, and should, be prevented.

How to do this seems sure to be a topic before the incoming Congress.

Most taxpayers are looking for elimination or reduction in federal excise taxes. And beyond that many taxpayers are hoping for another lowering of the rates on incomes.

Their hopes are built both on the prospect that in the next few years treasury receipts will rise enough to change the present deficit into a future surplus, and on the zeal of the administration and the Congress not only to give today's prosperity a longer life but to widen and strengthen it.

For the taxpayer there's the uncertainty of whether Congress will find that the economy needs any more boosting. And beyond that is the certainty that state and local tax collections are rising and in large part offsetting the saving on the federal tax bills.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Don't Be Too Hasty To Kill Abdominal Pain

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Association

The symptom your doctor is most frequently called on to relieve is pain. Yet he often has no way of knowing whether the pain is mild or severe.

Some persons have such a low threshold for pain that a very slight discomfort is described as an excruciating pain. Others with every reason to have severe pain show little or no evidence of having any pain at all.

Pain may be said to arise whenever a nerve that is a pain receptor is irritated. This irritation can be brought on by pressure from a sharp or blunt object, by extreme heat or cold, or by a chemical reaction such as contact with acid, alkali or salt. Very light stimuli may cause tickling or itching. Thus, these sensations may be considered a mild type of pain.

When a stimulus in the form of a pin, heat or a chemical is applied to the skin, the pain felt acts as a warning to withdraw before extensive tissue damage results. Thus, we all recognize the value of pain arising on the surface of the body. But when a pain arises from within the head, chest, abdomen or a joint, the immediate cause is often not so obvious. We are then apt to look on the pain not as a warning, but as something to be rid of as quickly as possible.

This has frequently caused a great deal of mischief. An all-too-common example is the person who, when confronted with severe pain in the abdomen, rushes to the medicine cabinet and takes a purgative. If the pain is due to an inflamed appendix, the purgative is more than likely to cause it to burst. This would result in peritonitis and possibly death. In such a case, it is better to suffer the pain and call a doctor to determine the cause.

It is unwise, too, to take a strong pain-killer while waiting for the doctor to come. Such a drug may not only dull the pain, but also bring down a fever and may thus mask the evidence of an infectious disease. This would cause your doctor to lose valuable time in arriving at a correct diagnosis.

At the other end of the spectrum is the person who complains incessantly about a pain that is little more than a minor discomfort. Constant pleas to do something — anything — to relieve the unbearable pain have led to many a fruitless exploratory operation on the abdomen that has left the victim no better off than before the operation.

So let us remember that even the severest pain has limits. A kindly providence has seen to it that we lose consciousness when our pain is truly unbearable. When you have pain, by all means seek relief, but not at the expense of neglecting to learn the cause of the pain. Pain properly heeded can be your friend, not your enemy.

Salt Cleans Etched Crystal

by Polly Cramer,
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY — I have found a good way to clean my collection of etched crystal glasses so they sparkle.

First, I wash the crystal as I do my other glasses dry them and polish with salt on a cloth. A crystal cutter told me this does not harm the crystal.—MRS. E. J.

GIRLS — The salt get into the indentations in etched crystal. I dampened the cloth so salt would cling to it. I see no particular advantage using it for plain crystal.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — To remedy snags in banion knits, push a straight pin head through the wrong side of the knit. Wrap snag around the pin head and pull through to the wrong side again. Presto! Snag can no longer be seen.—DONNA

GIRLS — This treatment certainly helped the looks of a cable patterned, wool sweater of mine.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — When melting butter in a time measuring cup I have saved burning many a hot pad by using a clothespin snapped to the handle for removing the cup from the heat.

CAROLYN

GIRLS — I like this but do be sure to hold the clip clothespin tightly shut and up close to the clip as there is danger of a spill when holding by only the open ends.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — There are only two of us in our household and we both work in the kitchen. Two people rarely use enough dishes to have a load in the dishwasher after each meal. We rinse them off and put the dishes in the machine but do not turn it on until either the top or bottom tray, at least, is full. Many people do this so that is not my "point."

To avoid confusion as whether or not one of us has washed the dishes, we keep a rubber band around the handle of the dishwasher and remove it when we turn on the machine. Then if the dishes are not removed immediately after being washed, we can tell instantly (by the absence or presence of the rubber band) whether they are clean and sterile or unwashed. This has been a great help to two people whose minds are on far more important things. Thank you for your "service."—MRS. M.M.G.

FORTY YEARS AGO

The West End orchestra recently organized held weekly rehearsal at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hamilton, 1415 West Fourth street. Members are: Freddie Kueck, violin; Carter Hamilton, saxophone; Junior Hamilton, drums. Mrs. Hamilton, who is a musician of talent, serves as accompanist and director. Aurelia McGruder, who is progressing in studies of piano and voice, often assists at rehearsals, as does Margaret Ferguson, who plays the cornet. All of the above reside in the same block on West Fourth street. The three boys are members of the Prospect school orchestra.
